HISTORY OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION

The South Carolina Tax Commission was created in 1915 for the sole purpose of bringing about equalization of assessments of property for taxation. At that time the State, counties and municipalities imposed a tax upon real and personal property. The first power assigned to the Tax Commission was "the Commission shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by law upon the former State Board of Equalization and upon the former State Board of Assessors prior to February 20, 1915." Originally the Commission was composed of a full time Chairman and two members on a per diem basis. The General Assembly indicated its intention to create a body as free as possible from political considerations by arranging for the terms of the members to be staggered so that one would expire each two years.

In 1920 the deflation that followed World War I and the decrease in cotton production due to the advent of the boll weevil caused the General Assembly of South Carolina to give serious consideration to some form of a relief to agriculture from an increased tax burden. A special committee was appointed for the purpose of studying the tax system and the committee was directed to make recommendations as to sources of revenue. The special committee on revenue and taxation made a most comprehensive report and the public interest was so awakened with the results that in 1922 the General Assembly embarked upon a program designed to eventually remove the tax on tangible property from the tax structure of South Carolina and to leave that field of taxation entirely to the counties and cities. That objective was finally reached in 1940 when the last State property tax levy, a three mill constitutional levy, was removed.

The General Assembly of 1922 pursuant to recommendations of the Special Committee enacted an Income Tax law and an Inheritance Tax law and an increase in Corporation License fees and a Gasoline Tax. The General Assembly of 1923 in furtherance of the general program of more equitably distributing the tax burden and ultimate removal of the property levy enacted the Business License law imposing taxes for the privilege of dealing in cigars, cigarettes, smoking tobacco, ammunition and candy. The latter was subsequently repealed. Also a tax was imposed for the privilege of operating places of amusement and a stamp tax was placed on documents. In 1925 the indirect program was further projected by the enactment of a tax for the privilege of dealing in soft drinks and cosmetics. The latter was subsequently repealed. The indirect tax program was now largely complete, but the repeal of the national prohibition amendment in 1933 opened up new sources of revenue and in that year the tax on 3.2% beer was enacted. In 1935 this was broadened to cover 5% beer, wine and alcoholic liquors. Although the State in 1922 embarked upon a program designed to abolish all property taxes and turn over that field completely to the subdivisions of the State, it retained in its administrative organization for the purposes of equalization all the machinery involved in the assessment and equalization of property.

Many changes have occurred since 1922, during which year the Commissioners were put on a full time basis. In 1945 the General Assembly passed an act to enlarge the powers and duties of the South Carolina Tax Commission and to increase the number of Commissioners by two, bringing the total number of Commissioners to five. The increase in the number of Commissioners was due to the transfer of the enforcement of the Beer and Wine and Alcoholic liquors tax laws to the Tax Commission. The 1967 General Assembly passed an act setting up the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission and transferring the enforcement of the Beer and Wine and Alcoholic liquors tax laws to said Commission. The act transferred two Commissioners of the Tax Commission to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission, leaving the Tax Commission with three Commissioners.

REPORT OF THE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ASSIGNED TO THE TAX COMMISSION FOR THE PERIOD COMMENCING JULY 1, 1980 AND ENDING JUNE 30, 1981

Section 17 of Part III of Act 802, Acts of 1960, provides that the Tax Commission include in its annual report a statement reflecting all cases decided in any of the Courts in this State relating to the Tax Commission. The report therefore reflects the cases that have been resolved by a Court and does not concern itself with cases now pending.

SOUTH CAROLINA SUPREME COURT

THOMAS H. DALE, ET AL. v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION, ET AL. — Plaintiffs have attempted to bring a class action contesting the Tax Commission's interpretation of South Carolina § 12-21-380. The Tax Commission and counties filed demurrers and the trial court sustained the demurrers as to the counties, but overruled the demurrer of the Tax Commission. On appeal to the Supreme Court, the case was decided in favor of the Tax Commission.

SOUTHEASTERN-KUSAN, INC. v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — This action was brought for a refund of sales taxes alleged by the South Carolina Tax Commission to be due on the transfer of plastic injection molds by Southeastern-Kusan to its customers. The matter was referred to the Master in Equity for Greenville County who took the testimony and evidence and reported that the transfer of such molds was exempt by the provisions of § 12-35-550(17) of the South Carolina Code. The Court of Common Pleas reversed the decision holding that the molds are taxable. On appeal the Supreme Court rendered a decision upholding the plaintiff.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. YORK ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE — This action was brought by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act to require the defendant to deliver certain dormant funds to the Commission. The question is whether or not individual items of less than $25 are excluded from the provisions of the Act or whether, as the Tax Commission contends, the exclusion applies to an aggregate amount of less than $25. The trial court held that individual items less than $25 are excluded and further held that the Commission should keep all amounts remitted whether or not less than $25. On appeal, the Supreme Court ruled in favor of the Tax Commission.

GEORGE L. SCHROEDER, DIRECTOR, LEGISLATIVE AUDIT COUNCIL, ET AL. v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — This was an action for the order of the Court of Common Pleas of Richland County to require the production or inspection of certain income tax returns. The plaintiffs alleged such was needed to complete an examination or audit. After hearing the Petition, the Order to produce was issued and the matter is now ended.

COUNTRY CLUB OF CHARLESTON v. W. O. THOMAS, JR., ET AL. — JAMES ISLAND YACHT CLUB v. W. O. THOMAS, ET AL. — These two cases involve a claimed exemption from ad valorem taxation and the refund of taxes paid by a denial of the same. The court held that the property was not exempt. No appeal was taken and the actions are now ended.

GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY v. W. O. THOMAS, JR., ET AL. — The issue is whether certain property of the company is exempt from ad valorem taxation. The case has by consent been ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. KENNETH W. RAY — This action involved the enforcement of a summons issued by the Tax Commission to an accountant to obtain records of a taxpayer where such records were in the possession of the accountant. An Order was issued requiring the accountant to produce the records and such production has been made. No appeal from the Judge's Order has been filed and the action is ended.

VERMELL R. FAGAN MANUEL, EXECUTRIX OF ESTATE OF WYLIE HAMPTON FAGAN v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — This action involves a refund claim for estate taxes. The refund claim had been denied because it is the position of the Tax Commission that the same was not filed within the time prescribed by law. An Order has now been entered upholding the position of the Tax Commission and no appeal has been taken.

BANKERS TRUST OF SOUTH CAROLINA v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — SOUTH CAROLINA NATIONAL BANK v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — CITIZENS AND SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — FIRST NATIONAL BANK v. SOUTH CAROLNA TAX COMMISSION — These actions were brought challenging the application of documentary stamp taxes under § 12-21-360 on notes executed outside of South Carolina and delivered into this State, and to extension agreements. The trial court ruled in favor of the Tax Commission on both points. The plaintiffs did not perfect the appeal and the matters were concluded.

JAMES C. GOODMAN v. ROBERT C. WASSON, ET AL. — Plaintiff brought an action against the Tax Commission to have access to certain records of the Tax Commission under the Freedom of Information Act. Responsive pleadings were filed and the Tax Commission moved for summary judgment which was granted by the trial court. No appeal was taken.

PAGELAND SCREEN PRINTERS, INC. v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — The issue in this action is similar to that in the Southeastern-Kusan case. As a result of the decision handed down in favor of the plaintiff in the Southeastern-Kusan case, this case has been settled and motions will be filed to have it dismissed.

J. M. PENDARVIS v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — A claim for refund was filed on the basis that losses from the ownership of a movie film should be allowed as a deduction against South Carolina income tax. The Commission denied such losses on the basis that the specific provisions of the statute allocate the same outside of South Carolina thereby precluding the same as a deduction against South Carolina income. The trial court ruled in favor of the Commission and the plaintiff did not appeal, thus, the action is ended.

CORPORATION OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — The plaintiff brought an action against the Tax Commission seeking a review of the Commission's refusal to grant ad valorem taxation exemption status to certain property owned by the plaintiff. This matter was subsequently remanded by the Court of Common Pleas to the Tax Commission for further findings of fact. Upon being remanded, the Tax Commission concluded that the property in question was entitled to an exemption from ad valorem taxation whereupon the plaintiff moved for and obtained an order of dismissal.

VINCENT MUNCH v. DAVID P. LOWTHER, ET AL. — This action was brought to challenge the constitutionality of a solid waste fee ordinance levied by the defendants. The ordinance in question was passed by the defendants pursuant to § 4-9-30 (5). The Attorney General intervened in the action to insure that the constitutionality of § 4-9-30 (5) itself was not raised. The matter was heard in the Court of Common Pleas at which time § 4-9-30 (5) was not alleged to be unconstitutional, whereupon the Attorney General withdrew from the case.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. MARY D. FELKEL — An Order to Show Cause was brought to compel the defendant to produce all relevant records regarding her income for the tax years 1977, 1978 and 1979. The defendant produced the requested records and the action was dismissed.
